

National Runaway Safeline
Associate Board
Expectations & Commitment Agreement

Associate Board Member Expectations:

Members will work together to leverage their time, talent and resources to advance the mission of the National Runaway Safeline (NRS) – ensuring that America’s runaway, homeless and at-risk youth are safe and off the streets. As a member of the NRS Associate Board, you will be expected to honor the following commitments:

- Financial Commitment
 - Members are responsible to give or get monetary or in-kind resources equivalent to, or greater than, $200
- Time Commitment
 - Member Terms
 - Each member commits to one year of service, with the option to renew membership at the end of NRS’ fiscal year. The NRS Fiscal Year runs from October 1 – September 30.
 - Meetings
 - Members are required to attend at least 75% of all Associate Board meetings (scheduled on the last Wednesday of each month) in person or by video conferencing and/or teleconference.
- Participation
 - Associate Board Events
 - Members will attend at least 2 Associate Board events annually and contribute through ticket sales, in-kind contributions, and/or event promotion.
 - Members are required to join and participate in at least one committee throughout their one-year term.
 - NRS Events
 - Members will invite at least 4 guests to NRS events throughout the year
 - Members will support NRS’ fundraising efforts by promoting events to their social and professional networks
- Awareness
 - Members will serve as thoughtful advocates for NRS, staying up to date on its mission, programs and events and issues related to NRS.
 - Members will introduce the work of NRS to internal networks through word of mouth, social media and/or personal introductions, to help increase awareness.
